

Crime Statistics

2005

In years past, the Smithfield Police Department included Rhode Island Serious Crime Rates in its annual report and compared Smithfield's Serious Crime Rates to other communities. Serious crime rates were determined through a Summary Based Crime Reporting System, which is no longer the national standard of collecting crime data. A new and more enhanced Incident Based Reporting system has been developed.

For more information on Incident Based Reporting, to include how it differs from the old Summary Based Crime Reporting System, visit www.risp.ri.us and click on the Criminal Statistics link. Listed below are Smithfield's Incident Based Crime Statistics for 2005.
